DANIEL M. FURESZ

Criminal Action No.: 10-398 (PGS)

Hon. Peter G. Sheridan

ORDER

WHEREAS this matter comes before the Court on Defendant Daniel M. Furesz's ("Defendant's") application to (1) withdraw his pro se status, (2) have the Office of the Federal Public Defender re-appointed to represent him, and (3) dismiss Steven E. Savage, Esq. as stand-by counsel; and

WHEREAS Defendant has indicated that he has lost confidence and trust in the stand-by representation of Mr. Savage¹ and now believes that representation by counsel is more preferable than acting in a pro se capacity; and

WHEREAS there is no opposition and good cause has been shown;

IT IS on this 25th day of May 2011, ORDERED as follows:

2. Defendant's motion to withdraw his pro se status and to have counsel appointed is granted.

¹ The Court is not making any findings regarding Defendant's allegations about Mr. Savage's representation. However, the Court notes that in its view, Mr. Savage was professional and diligent in handling all issues before the Court.

3. The Office of the Federal Public Defender is hereby re-appointed to serve as defense counsel to Defendant.
